

Participation Rules

Guidelines:

- Players do not have to be church members
- Girls who play basketball for their school are allowed to play if permitted by their coach
- Players must participate in half of the regular season games to play in the tournament
 - Injured player who is attending games but unable to play is considered to be participating

Number of activities required:

- ALL of these are retroactive to September 1, so youth may complete the entire season's requirements before the season starts.
- By 1st game in December, must attend 4 youth activities with sign-off by adult youth leader or youth minister
- By 1st game in January, must attend an additional 4 youth activities with sign-off by adult youth leader or youth minister
- By 1st game in February, must attend an additional 4 youth activities with sign-off by adult youth leader or youth minister
- By 1st game of tournament, must attend an additional 4 youth activities with sign-off by adult youth leader or youth minister

Activities:

- Service project (4 activities)
- Sunday School
- Wednesday night youth activities
- Sunday night youth activities
- Youth group sponsored projects or outings
- Multi-day retreats count as 1 activity per day
- 4 church services, morning or evening = 1 activity
- Youth group Bible study
- First youth activity of any youth visitor invited by a player
- Attending a church activity while traveling
- *Basketball practices or other basketball activities do NOT count as activities
- *For special cases, consult with leadership team

Activity Sheets:

- Coaches must track and ensure that these are completed throughout the season
- Coaches must provide completed sheets to leadership team at the start of the tournament